Charles Morgan

Since joining Law Debenture in 1997, Charles has had day-to-day responsibility for the trusteeship of a variety of pension schemes, including both ongoing schemes and schemes that are in winding up. He is also responsible for a number of secured unfunded unregistered retirement benefit schemes (SUURBS, now also referred to as employer funded retirement benefit schemes or EFRBS).

Charles' responsibilities have included representing Law Debenture as chairman of the trustee boards of two schemes sponsored by statutory corporations whose benefits are based on the civil service pension arrangements.

Before joining Law Debenture, Charles was a partner for 12 years at Allen & Overy, where he specialised in transactional and advisory work in the corporate, commercial and financial sectors, including a good deal of corporate trustee work. For some years he was a member and then the secretary of the Commercial Law Sub-Committee of the City of London Law Society.
